DC Affordable Law Firm Selected as the Brown Award Recipient for 2023 by the American Bar Association’s Standing Committee on the Delivery of Legal Services

WASHINGTON, DC — DC Affordable Law Firm (DCALF) is thrilled to have been named as the 2023 Brown Award Recipient by the American Bar Association’s Standing Committee on the Delivery of Legal Services.

The mission of the ABA Standing Committee on the Delivery of Legal Services is to expand access to legal services for those of moderate income. Each year they present the Louis M. Brown Award for Legal Access to an organization whose work advances that mission in ways that are “both remarkable and replicable.”

DC Affordable Law Firm is the only non-profit legal aid organization serving the 100,000+ DC residents who make between 200% and 400% of the federal poverty line. This population is typically ineligible for traditional forms of free legal aid and unable to afford private counsel.

“We pride ourselves on our innovative approach to accessible justice.” says DCALF’s Executive Director Gabby Mulnick Majewski. “We also strive to create a sustainable, replicable program that can serve as a model for other organizations in other US cities. So, this award, acknowledging our achievement in both of these areas, means a lot to us.”
